My dear Sir

I thank you for your P. C. Order for 6/

If I had all the Reprints you want, I could not send them without prepayment, unless I laid myself open to a proceeding at law for publication without furnishing copies to the British Museum &c.

As it is, I think, I have no money of yours in hand; but I may be mistaken & shall be glad to be set right.

Yours very sincerely
J. Payne Collier

My dear Sir
I have your favor of 10 Oct. before me and in reply to inform you that I have not yet received your letter of the 10th and I am sorry to hear that you are not well. I hope you will soon be able to resume your work. I am, Sir, very respectfully, Yours very truly,
J. H. Thompson
